

WHERE LEADERS ARE MADE

Dear Employer,

I am pleased to inform you that through participation in the Toastmasters International Leadership Program, Travis Currier has earned Advanced Leader Bronze recognition.

The Leadership Program is a self-paced training program that helps participants increase their leadership skills in a club environment. To achieve Advanced Leader Bronze recognition, participants must serve as a Toastmasters club leader, influencing and motivating followers to achieve a mission or goal. Through their efforts, they help members function productively and deliver quality performances.

Completing these requirements involves several years of study and activity. It also demonstrates tremendous self-motivation and a strong interest in self-improvement. By achieving Advanced Leader Bronze recognition, Toastmaster Currier has shown a commitment to excellence in leadership.

I know you will be pleased to learn of Toastmaster Currier's accomplishments and recognition.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Daniel Rex".

Daniel Rex
Chief Executive Officer